Your email will be used to inform you of upcoming events and volunteer opportunities. There are a variety of ways, time-commitment, and social-interaction levels to get involved. We can find a way for you to help, regardless of your availability. Be sure to mark opportunities you're most excited about:

- Battle of the Books- read a book(s) from the battle list and create questions for each book, run practice battles, run official battles, plan the winner's party
- Science Fair- recruit visiting scientist, setup and break down, help organize children day of
- Tiger Revue- organize tryouts, practices, dress rehearsal, and event
- Watch D.O.G.S.- male role models who volunteer at least ONE day for cross-walk, lunch, and other campus duties
- Tiger Mascot- BE the luckiest Tiger! (wear the suit, even if it is just one event)
- Hospitality Committee- help organize and carry out special events (Boo-Hoo Woo-Hoo Breakfast, staff luncheons, etc.)
- Donuts for Dads- get donuts and other refreshments, setup/cleanup, honor all our male role models
- Muffins for Moms- get muffins and other refreshments, setup/cleanup, honor all our female role models
- Jog-a-thon- This event makes other programs possible! gather prizes, organize shirt order, info distribution, assemblies, setup/cleanup
- Tiger Power Programs- help trim and count box tops
- Fifth Grade Events/Fall Carnival- help 5th graders organize and run Fall Carnival, plan and execute the trip to Legislature, end of year field trip, and class promotion
- Yearbook- photograph events throughout year and help with yearbook layout
